

BETRAYED PARTNERS THERAPY GROUP

THURSDAYS, 9:00AM – 11:00AM
FEBRUARY 2 – APRIL 27, 2023

Are you having difficulty coping with the impact of secretive or compulsive sexual behavior in a current or past relationship?

The Betrayed Partners Therapy Group is uniquely designed to help support, educate and empower individuals who are dealing with the traumatic effects of secretive or sexually compulsive behavior in their primary relationship.

The group is rooted in a partner sensitive approach and the Multidimensional Partner Trauma Model of therapy. Each session focuses on a different topic related to partner healing. A blend of psycho-education, skill building and discussion will be used each week. Additionally, a workbook will further in-session work at home.

Partners who are seeking a safe setting wherein they may focus on their own healing will find this group complementary to individual therapy or twelve-step programs.

Facilitated by:
