(9 sessions)

11:30AM TO 1:30PM

Are you ready to take recovery to the next level?
Or, do you need a refresher of key recovery principles? If you have overcome the crisis phase of betrayal trauma and are ready for post-trauma growth, this group is for you.

The Advanced Therapy Group for Betrayed Adults is uniquely designed to further the healing of individuals in the latter stages of recovery from betrayal trauma.

The group is rooted in a trauma-informed approach and the Multidimensional Partner Trauma Model of therapy.

Each session focuses on a different topic related to individual, couple, or family healing and aims to nurture long-term change.

A blend of psycho-education, skill-building, guest speakers, and discussion will be used in each session. Additionally, readings will be assigned to further in-session work.

Individuals who are seeking a supportive setting wherein they may further their healing will find this group informative and enriching.
